December 17, 2020

Dear Congressional Art Competition Winner:

Congratulations on being selected as your congressional district's representative for the 39th Annual Congressional Art Competition! Congress is honored to recognize your outstanding artistic achievement.

How wonderful that each person who passes through the halls of the Cannon Tunnel in the United States Capitol will be able to recognize and honor your winning artwork on display. Each piece in the collection reflects a voice as distinct and diverse as the community it represents, and together, they serve as a testament to the talent, ingenuity, and potential of our nation's young minds.

Again, congratulations! May you continue to light the future with your creativity, your innovation, and your promise.

best regards,
