Dear Friend,

Congratulations on your selection as a winner of the 2020 Congressional Art Competition. It is a wonderful achievement and an incredible example of your talent as an artist. Since 1982, artwork from across our nation has made its way to the halls of the Capitol thanks to inspiring artists like you.

From paintings and sketches to digital collages and photography, this competition brings to the Capitol a great range of work from every corner of our country for visitors, Members and staff to enjoy each day. I can only imagine how proud your family and friends must be of you for earning this award.

Thank you for sharing your art with your country and your fellow citizens.

Sincerely,
